The Countryside Code

The Countryside Code helps us to look after the plants and animals in the countryside.

Match up the codes with the reason why we should keep that code.

Do not light fires
Shut gates behind you
Keep your dog under control
Follow the paths
Do not drop litter

| so that they don't chase and frighten farm animals. |
| --- |
| because animals can eat it and get very poorly. |
| to make sure you don't get lost. |
| in case they harm plants and animals. |
| so that farm animals don't escape from their fields. |

Draw a picture for one of the Countryside Codes.

The Countryside Code Answers

The Countryside Code helps us to look after the plants and animals in the countryside.

Match up the codes with the reason why we should keep that code.

Codes	Reasons
Do not light fires	so that they don't chase and frighten farm animals.
Shut gates behind you	because animals can eat it and get very poorly.
Keep your dog under control	to make sure you don't get lost.
Follow the paths	in case they harm plants and animals.
Do not drop litter	so that farm animals don't escape from their fields.

The Countryside Code

The Countryside Code helps us to look after the plants and animals in the countryside.

Fill in the missing words.

1. Do not light fires because they might _____ plants and _____ animals.

2. Shut gates behind you because animals might _____ from their fields.

3. Keep your dog under control because it might _____ and _____ sheep.

4. Follow the paths to make sure you don't get _____.

5. Do not drop litter because animals might _____ it and become ill. Litter should be put in the _____.

Word Bank	escape	damage	bin	frighten
	lost	chase	harm	eat

Why do we have the Countryside Code?

_____

_____

_____

Draw a picture for the code you think is the most important.

The Countryside Code Answers

The Countryside Code helps us to look after the plants and animals in the countryside.

Fill in the missing words.

1. Do not light fires because they might _____damage_____ plants and _____harm_____ animals.

2. Shut gates behind you because animals might __escape__ from their fields.

3. Keep your dog under control because it might _____chase_____ and _____frighten_____ sheep.

4. Follow the paths to make sure you don't get _____lost_____.

5. Do not drop litter because animals might _____eat_____ it and become ill. Litter should be put in the _____bin_____.

Word Bank
escape	damage	bin	frighten
lost	chase	harm	eat

Why do we have the Countryside Code?

We have the Countryside Code to make sure we all look after the plants and animals. We need to keep them from being harmed or damaged so that everyone can enjoy them/they are living things.

Draw a picture for the code you think is the most important.

The Countryside Code Answers

The Countryside Code helps us to look after the plants and animals in the countryside.

Complete these sentences.

Do not light fires because _____

_____

Shut gates behind you, otherwise _____

_____

Keep your dog under control because _____

_____

Follow the paths because _____

_____

Do not drop litter because _____

_____

Which Countryside Code do you think is the most important? Explain your reasons. _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

The Countryside Code Answers

The Countryside Code helps us to look after the plants and animals in the countryside.

Complete these sentences.

Do not light fires because they might kill or harm animals and damage plants.

Shut gates behind you, otherwise animals might escape from their fields.

Keep your dog under control because it might chase and frighten sheep and other farm animals.

Follow the paths because otherwise you might get lost.

Do not drop litter because it looks horrible and animals might eat it and get very ill.

Which Countryside Code do you think is the most important? Explain your reasons. Pupil's own response.