Information from assessment is used to inform future learning. Staff use a range of methods and strategies to assess pupil progress e.g. N.C, QCA, SATS, regular teacher assessment, in-built assessment within specific programmes.

Pastoral Support and Pupils Views:

They know that any language or behaviour which is discriminatory, racist, sexist, homophobic or potentially damaging to any minority group is always unacceptable.

Disapplication and modification:

Hartington C of E Primary School can, where necessary, modify or dis-apply the National Curriculum and its assessment arrangements. Our policy is to do this only in exceptional circumstances. The school makes every effort to meet the learning needs of all its children without recourse to disapplication or modification. We achieve this through greater differentiation of the child's work, or through the provision of additional learning resources. When necessary, we also support learning through appropriate external specialists. In such cases, teachers work closely with these agencies to support the child.

In exceptional circumstances we may decide that modification or disapplication is the correct procedure to follow. We would only do this after detailed consultation with parents and the Local Authority. The school's governor with responsibility for special educational needs would also be closely involved in this process. We would ensure that every effort had been made to provide the necessary support from within the school's resources before considering such action.

Should we go ahead with modification or disapplication, we would do so through:

- Section 364 of the Education Act 1996. This allows modification or disapplication of the National Curriculum, or elements of it, through a statement of special educational needs;
- Section 365 of the Education Act 1996. This allows the temporary modification or disapplication of the National Curriculum, or elements of it.

Admissions and Attendance:

The admissions process is monitored by the LA who ensure that it is administered fairly and consistently to all pupils, so that pupils from particular groups are not disadvantaged. The school and families are aware of their rights and responsibilities in relation to pupil attendance and absence is always followed up by appropriate personnel who are aware of community issues. Provision would be made for pupils on extended leave or in hospital or ill at home so that they are able to continue with their learning.
