

Upper KS2 Understanding Christianity/Derbyshire Agreed Syllabus

Question: Can following God bring freedom and justice?

UKS2	Core Concept: People of God	Names of children
Developing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know that most Christians believe that God rescued his people from slavery in Egypt. • I am aware of the story of Moses and the exodus and I can show how these relate to the concepts of freedom justice and salvation. • I know that most Christians believe the 10 commandments (and the Torah) were given to Moses to guide people in how to live. • I know that most Christians believe that Jesus shows them how to live through his teachings. This inspires Christians to work for justice and freedom and I can give at least one example of a charity that does this today.
Secure/Expected	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know that most Christians believe that God rescued his people from slavery in Egypt and that this story looks forward to Jesus death and resurrection that rescued people from the slavery of sin. • I know the outline story of Moses and the exodus (select detail) and I can show how these relate to the concepts of freedom justice and salvation • I know that most Christians believe the 10 commandments (and the Torah) were given to Moses to guide people in how to live in the way wanted them to live as part of the covenant. • I know that most Christians believe that Jesus brings a new covenant with his people showing them how to live through his teachings. I can relate this to the 5 Marks of Mission in the Anglican Church. • I know that the story of the exodus has inspired Christians to work for justice and freedom and I can give at least one detailed example of a charity that does this today. • I can reflect on why freedom and justice are so important in the world today.
Exceeding	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can raise relevant questions in response to the enquiry into the question 'Can following God bring freedom and justice?' • I am able to explore issues of fighting for justice and freedom today developing my own insights and can give reasons to support my views. • I can make connections to the 'Big Story' of Christianity. • I can relate the stories of the Old Testament to the biblical accounts of the Jesus as a new Covenant. • I can create Ten Lessons for living to show my ideas of how everyone can do more to bring freedom and justice.

Upper KS2 Understanding Christianity/Derbyshire Agreed Syllabus

Question: Can following God bring freedom and justice?