MONDAY		RESPECT		To reflect on the wonder and beauty of the natural environment which can be expressed through the arts.	Look at something sparkly (necklace etc) – ask what it means when someone sparkles? What does this say about their personality? Read p 300(V4L) introduction to Hildas birth and how her mum thought she would sparkle. We will learn more about her daughter and how she became a shining saint tomorrow. Play How Great Thou Art (O Lord my God) {3vv - Spring Harvest} [with lyrics for congregations] - YouTube and listen to words and ask them to consider what works of creation they value.
TUESDAY		RESPECT		To reflect on the wonder and beauty of the natural environment	Read the story of St Hilda and Caedmon (p 301 V4L) or watch Epic Tales Online: Hilda &amp; Caedmon - YouTube from 5min 44.

				which can be expressed through the arts	Focus on the fact that Caedmon was told to sing about creation, If they were to write a song about creation, what would we include? Make a list. Form a praise prayer about creation and how they value God's creation. Ask a small group (worship team) to decorate it as if it was a holy manuscript – see example below. Decorate with leaves/ flowers/ wonders of creation.
WEDNESDAY		Respect		To reflect on the wonder and beauty of the natural environment which can be expressed through the arts	Whitby's "Snakestones" and the legend of St.Hilda (real.yorkshireblog.com) Look at more of the story of St Hilda – and the fossils. Look at how these are also a wonder of nature. Ask the children if they have ever found any fossils, if they have... bring them in to show.
